

SELF – INTRODUCTION

Introduction

My name is Safia Noor, I am 14 years old and I am currently studying in class IX-A. I am A dedicated student who values education and believes in consistent learning and growth. As A part of my academic journey, I aim to focus on building A strong foundation in all subjects to prepare myself for future challenges. I take my studies seriously and always strive to maintain discipline and regularity in my school life.

Personality traits

I am a disciplined and dedicated individual who consistently strives for excellence in all tasks. I demonstrate respect and empathy in my interactions, fostering positive and collaborative relationships. Additionally, I maintain composure under pressure and view challenges as opportunities for growth and learning.

Hobbies And Interests

I enjoy reading books because it helps me learn and think creatively. I also like drawing and gardening, which allow me to express myself and connect with nature. Besides these hobbies, I am interested in exploring new cultures and learning about different traditions. These activities keep me curious and motivated to grow.

Personal Achievement

I have been recognized for my creativity in arts and my leadership abilities. I hold a certificate of creativity and arts for demonstrating originality and talent in various artistic projects. Additionally, my leadership and teamwork skills have been acknowledged through a certificate of leadership and teamwork, highlighting my ability to collaborate effectively and take initiative in group settings.

Skill Learned In This Course

Proficient in Microsoft word, skilled at creating and formatting documents with tables, images, and collaborative tools. Experienced in Microsoft excel for data entry, using formulas, functions, and pivot tables to analyze and visualize data. Adept at designing professional presentations in PowerPoint, incorporating multimedia, animations, and slide transitions. Able to use these tools effectively to enhance productivity and communication.

Favorite Tool/ Topic

My favorite topic is video editing because it allows me to turn raw footage into creative and engaging visual stories. I use davinci resolve as my main tool due to its powerful features like color grading, precise editing, and audio control. It gives me the freedom to experiment while maintaining professional quality. Video editing helps me express ideas visually, and davinci resolve makes that process both efficient and inspiring.

Strengths And Weaknesses

Strengths

1. Creative – enjoys drawing, writing, or coming up with new ideas.
2. Curious – loves to learn new things and ask questions.
3. Helpful – always ready to support friends or family.
4. Respectful – shows kindness and good manners to others.

Weaknesses

1. Shy in public – feels nervous speaking in front of others.
2. Sometimes unsure – lacks confidence in decisions or answers.
3. Gets distracted – sometimes loses focus during tasks or lesson.
4. Afraid to ask for help – hesitates to speak up when confused.

Future Goals

My future goal is to become a chartered accountant. I am interested in numbers, finance, and solving problems, which makes this career exciting for me. I want to work hard in my studies, especially in subjects like math and accounting, so I can achieve this goal. In the future, I hope to help businesses manage their finances properly and make smart financial decisions. Becoming a chartered accountant will also allow me to grow professionally and support my family with pride.

Role Model and Inspiration

My role model and inspiration is my mother. She is not only hardworking but also kind, patient, and always ready to help others. Her way of living, her sacrifices, and her positive attitude in every situation truly inspire me. I want to be like her — a strong support for my family and someone who never gives up. She teaches me that no matter how difficult life gets, with hard work, faith, and courage, anything is possible.

Closing

“Thank you for your time and attention during my presentation. I appreciate the chance to share my experiences and goals with you. This opportunity motivates me to keep learning and growing, both personally and professionally.”
As I said:

*‘I am the story waiting to be told,
with bring dreams and intentions bold’*

thank you
